6

Integrated solutions with one exclusive focus

Built for the future of the sector

Defined by deep sector knowledge and interdisciplinary talent across law, medicine, science, regulation, data and compliance.

Expert medical-legal counsel

Medical lawyers with more than two decades of experience alongside doctors, clinical leaders, data specialists and compliance professionals.

Interdisciplinary capability

Legal, medical, scientific, regulatory and commercial expertise in one integrated practice.

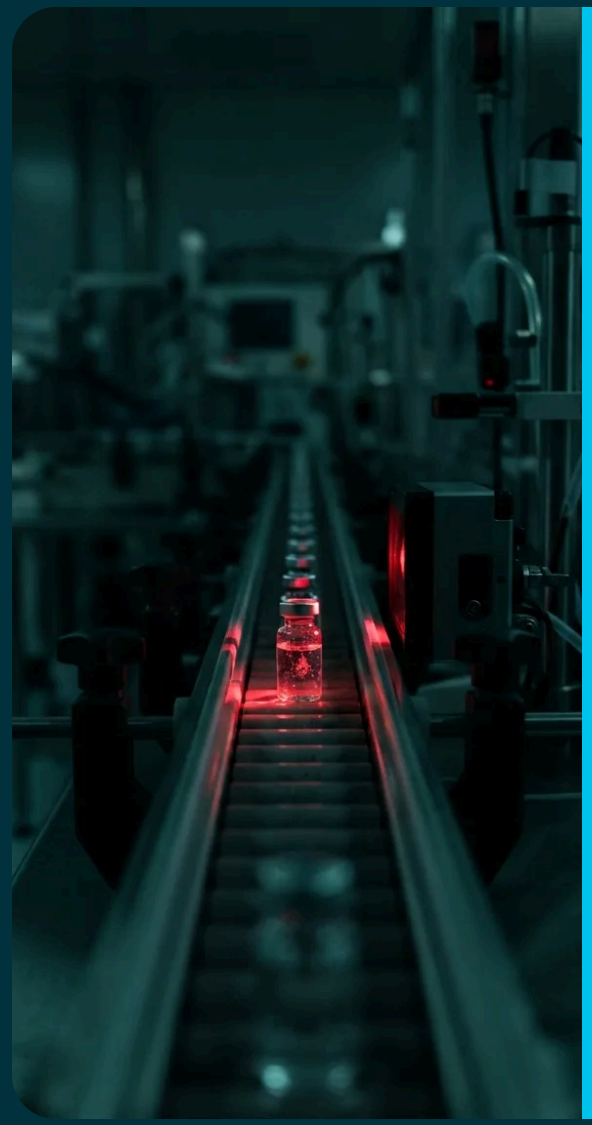

Global solutions

Proactive support across Europe, Africa, the Middle East, South America and Asia-Pacific.

THE PROBLEM

Traditional law firms fail to meet the specialised demands of a heavily regulated sector.

- ✕ No true sub-specialty
- ✕ No industry-specific expertise or clinical scientific insight
- ✕ No regulatory compliance

Severe consequences

WHEN GENERALIST ADVICE MEETS A REGULATED SECTOR

Hefty fines, enforcement actions, product withdrawals, reputational damage, patient-safety risks, data breaches and extortionate amounts in claims.

Life sciences and healthcare organisations cannot rely on traditional law firms that claim to know it all and cover every area of law, when their sector demands specialised, cross-disciplinary expertise.

Medipharmaco Law: precision counsel, exclusive to life sciences and healthcare.

20+ years

OF MEDICAL-LEGAL EXPERIENCE ACROSS THE SECTOR

Our team includes expert medical lawyers with more than two decades of experience working alongside doctors, clinical leaders, data specialists, compliance professionals and subject-matter experts.

Integrated support. One exclusive focus.

OUR ANSWER

Precision counsel for a changing world.

- Truly specialised, sector-specific legal expertise supported by interdisciplinary talent
- Life sciences and healthcare sub-specialists who operate exclusively in this sector
- Subject-matter experts in medicine and law with clinical, scientific, technical and legal grounding
- Interdisciplinary, cross-functional advisory capability

OUR SOLUTIONS

Integrated support. One exclusive focus

01

Fractional Legal

Flexible, senior-level legal capacity for in-house teams facing increased workload, limited resources, hiring freezes, interim coverage, or gaps in expertise. A seamless plug-and-play extension of your legal function.

02

Compliance

End-to-end regulatory and operational compliance support. We identify gaps, strengthen controls, and build scalable systems that withstand scrutiny from regulators, partners, and internal stakeholders.

03

Data Governance

Design, refinement, and implementation of data governance frameworks, policies, and operational processes. Ensuring responsible, secure, and compliant use of sensitive, regulated, and clinical data.

04

Industry Counsel

Precision legal and regulatory guidance tailored to healthcare, biotech, medtech, and life sciences. Ideal for organisations navigating complex, high-risk, and highly regulated environments.

05

Medical & Scientific Expertise Desk

Access to clinicians, scientists, and technical experts who provide specialised medical, scientific, and technical insight. Supporting validation, design, and decision-making for complex initiatives.

06

Clinical AI Expertise Desk

Expert support for the development, validation, governance, and responsible deployment of AI in clinical settings. Helping organisations meet regulatory expectations and ensure safe, effective AI-driven solutions.

WHO WE SUPPORT

Specialist support, shaped around you

Life sciences and healthcare bring different pressures to every role. Find the legal, regulatory, medical and scientific expertise that fits yours.

01 IN-HOUSE LEGAL TEAMS

Are you an in-house lawyer in the life sciences & healthcare industry?

When in-house legal teams are stretched, risk does not wait. Legal leaders are expected to be strategic business partners. Wearing multiple hats leaves less time for the legal and compliance work that keeps the organisation safe.

02 BUSINESS OWNERS & EXECUTIVES

Are you a business owner or executive in life sciences & healthcare?

Keep decisions moving when your organisation has no dedicated legal, compliance or data governance function, or when your existing team needs additional capacity or specialist knowledge.

03 HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS & ORGANISATIONS

Are you a healthcare professional or healthcare organisation?

Clinical decisions carry legal, regulatory and operational consequences. We support healthcare professionals, hospitals, clinics and care networks with medico-legal matters, incident investigations, expert evidence, compliance and data governance.

CO-FOUNDERS' MESSAGE

Where scientific insight meets legal expertise

> Scientific insight informs our thinking. Legal expertise shapes our advice. Your objectives remain our focus.

Medicine continually redefines what is possible. Scientific discovery challenges established thinking. Technology transforms how we diagnose, treat and care. Yet every advance brings new legal, regulatory, ethical and commercial questions that require more than legal analysis alone. It is at this intersection that Medipharmaco Law was conceived.

Our partnership brings together two complementary perspectives. One founder brings more than two decades of legal experience across healthcare and life sciences, including General Counsel-level leadership, formal study of medical law and extensive industry experience. The other brings a background in medical education, a grounding in clinical science and a deep interest in clinical artificial intelligence, medical technology and the future of medicine.

For our clients, this means legal counsel that takes the time to appreciate the science, the organisation and the ambitions behind each matter, and translates complexity into clear, practical and commercially astute guidance.
